

TALKING SHOP WITH SHANE ROSS
NEST HOME

When did you open? We launched our showroom at 101 Plaza Real South in Boca Raton in July 2014. Why Boca? The city's very in tune with my design sensibilities. It's where modernism meets the beach. Describe your offerings. We feature a wide array of products from high-end home fragrance lines, such as Nest Fragrances and Aquiesse, to natural bath products from France's Côte Bastide. We also carry the latest trends in home furnishings and accessories. What makes Nest Home different from other showrooms? We do so much more! In addition to our giftware and décor, we provide full-service design and construction services. atnesthome.com

WHO: Hannah Mayo, a West Palm Beach-based lifestyle photographer who uses her eye for artful vignettes and colorful personalities to capture even the most fleeting of memories.

WHAT: Expect to find glimpses into the young mother's daily adventures with her homeschooled brood, nostalgia-tinged travel shots, and sneak peeks inside the pages of her beautifully rendered watercolor sketchbook/diary.

WHY: Because through Mayo's lens, it's easy to remind yourself not to take the everyday for granted: Her ability to elevate the ordinary—a half-peeled orange, a cup of coffee, cookie batter in a bowl—into art is refreshing and inspiring.

IN HER WORDS: "I am constantly trying to keep my eyes open to the beauty around me, and because my phone is always so easily available, it has helped me to continuously grow in the way I see and capture it all."

 IRENE LUMMERTZ

What happens behind the scenes in the studios of some of the city's best craftsmen and artisans? For Palm Beach-based jewelry designer and gem enthusiast Irene Lummertz, creativity is about exploring the beauty of nature and then celebrating it through her dazzling collection of baubles for nearly every occasion—though it's not as simple as it may seem. "The area of Brazil that I'm from originally is home to a vast array of gorgeous, sought-after gemstones," says Lummertz. "They aren't always easy to find, extract, cut and polish—it can take a lot of literal digging, determination and perseverance—but that's what differentiates my line of jewelry from others. I source the stones myself from a series of small local mines, and they speak to me. We are so lucky to live in a world with such incredible natural resources to share." irenelummertz.com

INSIDE EDITION

LUXE TAPPED TALENTED LOCAL DESIGNERS FOR THEIR BEST SOURCES AND RECOMMENDATIONS TO SHINE A LIGHT ON SOME OF THE CITY'S FINEST OFFERINGS IN ART AND DESIGN.

"Heath & Company is great for lighting: It carries everything—from traditional to over-the-top. You can generally find lampshades in stock, too, but like owner Alan Solomon says, 'Be sure to bring the lamp with you; otherwise, it's almost like you're buying a hat with no head!'"

-CHAD RENFRO

"I can't think of a better spot to shop than the John Andrew Showroom. The workmanship and quality of the furniture they have in inventory is unparalleled, with styles from the rustic to the refined. They carry the kind of timeless pieces that are sure to become heirlooms."

-JENNIFER BLAKE HOYOS

"Simonette Hakim, owner and operator of the Palm Beach Antique & Design Center, has created a magical space. She's my go-to person for midcentury modern furniture—to learn more about their makers and history—or if I am just looking for that hard-to-get piece."

-JACKI MALLICK

CURATOR ART AND CULTURE CENTER OF HOLLYWOOD

"If you're looking to grow your own collection, get out there and view as much art as possible. Figure out what turns you on. What excites you? What do you feel would enhance your daily life? Right now, I am most impressed by South Florida artists like Freddy Jouwayed, Sinisa Kukec, Stephan Tugrul, Jose Alvarez, Bhakti Baxter, Loriel Beltran, Autumn Casey, Phillip Estlund, Adler Guerrier, Aramis Gutierrez, Brookhart Jonquil, Cristina Lei Rodriguez, Hugo Montoya and Jillian Mayer, among others. They all think outside the box and create works that are a reflection of their personal experiences." -JANE HART, ARTANDCULTURECENTER.ORG

FASHION FORWARD

NINA GARCIA

One of the most well-respected names in fashion, Nina Garcia loves design in all its many forms. Here, the editor and television personality shares her secrets for great style—both on the runway and off of it.

What new runway trends would you like to see reflected in the home? The Seventies were a big trend this season. I think it would be interesting to see fabrics from that era—like suede, denim and patchwork—incorporated into the home in an elegant way.

Which fashion designer would you love to see develop his or her own home collection? I love Fendi and Armani's home lines. They fit well with my subdued, pared-down luxe aesthetic. I'm not much of a print or pattern person myself, but I would love to see Mary Katrantzou or Proenza Schouler do a textile collection.

Your home features masterful layering, thanks to the wonderful rugs throughout. Why is investing in rugs so important? They lay the groundwork for the entire space, tie everything together, and add character to a room. There are many great places for rugs, but my favorites are Tai Ping, Doris Leslie Blau, Stark, Safavieh and Marc Phillips.

Let's talk fabric. Do you find you're drawn to the same textures for your wardrobe as you are for your home? When it comes to interior design, I am attracted to simple, neutral color palettes but very rich texture because, for me, that's where you can bring personality in. I think the same could be said for my wardrobe. My bedroom curtains are cashmere, and I love a good cashmere sweater, as well. Same with a shaggy fur coat—on a pillow? Fabulous.

Share your home design staples. I'm always hunting for Swedish midcentury furniture, textured carpets and unique pieces during my travels. They're what I splurge on.

What are your favorite shops and showrooms to visit when you're at home in New York? I always stop into Gallery BAC. The selection is amazing, and Carlos Aparicio is a dear friend of mine who actually helped me decorate my apartment. I also like Maison Gerard, Karl Kemp Antiques and 1stdibs.

BETH ASCHENBACH AND DANIELLE NORCROSS: PALM BEACH LATELY

Sisters Beth Aschenbach and Danielle Norcross share such a deep love of Palm Beach that they incorporated it into their company's name and blog, Palm Beach Lately. If you ask them, though, Palm Beach is more than a destination: It's an entire aesthetic. And no one is better equipped to break down the best places for bringing the city's preppy, colorful style into your home and wardrobe. Here, Aschenbach and Norcross share their go-to spots on the Island. palmbeachlately.com

9 a.m. Meet at Nick & Johnnie's for the absolute best eggs benedict and donuts. If Nick, one of the owners, is there, he'll greet you with a smile.

10 a.m. You can't come to Palm Beach without going to Lilly Pulitzer at The Breakers and getting a taste for the iconic juice stand-turned-resort brand. While there, grab a coffee and enjoy the view by sitting on patio furniture with colorful fabric by designer Trina Turk.

11 a.m. Next, stop by Rapunzel's Closet. Owner Randi Siegal and the shop's buyer, Hallie Rosenthal, are known for stocking their store with the latest trends that appeal to city and beach girls alike.

12 p.m. Just a few doors down, C. Orrico carries resort wear for the whole family, as well as preppy home accents. Sisters Casey, Kathie and Colleen Orrico opened the store 25 years ago and are popular among both locals and vacationers.

1 p.m. Head to Worth Avenue and visit our favorite Island department store: Neiman Marcus. Beth Pine, the store's V.P. and general manager, hosts the best fashion events.

2 p.m. Ta-boo is a great lunch place located right on the Avenue. Be sure to snag the window seat to watch the shoppers pass by. The lunch specials include yummy fresh soups, salads and sandwiches.

3 p.m. One of the best parts of Worth Avenue is taking in the views and wandering around the vias. Tiffany's, Chanel and Maus & Hoffman all have gorgeous storefronts that make for the best window-shopping.

3:30 p.m. Check out some of our favorite hidden spots: Go to Babalu for wonderful home accessories and gifts, Leta Austin Foster for traditional Palm Beach housewares, and Tom Mathieu for fresh flowers and candles.

4 p.m. Island Home is our last stop to pick up "beach-chic" design for the home. Here, you'll find beautiful embellished shell mirrors, white slipcovered furniture, raffia-wrapped tables, embroidered pillows, shell décor, frames and more.

5 p.m. End your day at Buccan for happy hour with our favorite light bites, like the tuna crisp or the shortrib empanadas. Its signature Buccan T cocktail—with vodka, black tea, cranberry, citrus, basil and agave nectar—is also incredible.

BLUEPRINT

EAU PALM BEACH

Jonathan Adler has taken Palm Beach chic to a whole new level with his recent redesign of 309 guest rooms for Manalapan's Eau Palm Beach Resort & Spa. Using bright colors, bold prints and plenty of playful, commissioned artwork from renowned talents like Donald Robertson, Leila Jeffreys and Jenna Snyder-Phillips, Adler's aesthetic vision for the interiors now rivals the breathtaking ocean views available from each suite. Though he's also gathered inspiration for his color palette from locales as far-flung as Capri and Santorini, there's no mistaking the rooms' old Florida feel thanks to graphic bamboo wallpaper, chinoiserie console tables and Slim Aarons photography throughout. eapalmbeach.com
